Trails Plus

Combines the social practices of language within an interactive, text-rich linguistic program. It also provides your students with the opportunity to interact and express themselves through written and oral texts in a variety of contexts.

An exciting way to explore English with fun and engaging activities!

🇺🇸 6 LEVELS · A1–A2 · 3–4 hours per week · CLIL inside

STRUCTURE

Trails Plus offers ten units, each with ten pages of activities designed to stimulate critical thinking while developing specific language skills. Each unit is divided into nine sections that will give students the opportunity to learn and practice English in different ways.

- The Topic Trail and Reading Trail sections develop vocabulary as well as reading comprehension and literacy skills related to a corresponding text in the Reader.
- The Language Trail and the Learning Trail pages provide controlled and freer practice of new language.
- The Listening Trail develops listening comprehension skills while presenting specific language functions.
- The Cross-Curricular page gives students the opportunity to see and practice the target language in the context of another academic subject.
- The Personalize it! allows students to relate the new language to their own lives and environment.
- The Real English exposes students to the different cultures of English-speaking countries.
- The Writing Trail includes tasks that will help students develop basic writing skills.

At the end of each unit, you will find the Game Trail and Learning Log, where students will practice language while engaged in a fun board game and reflect on what they have learned.
